

Collection of Personal Information,
Privacy Act 1988 (Cth) and HRIP Act 2002 (NSW)

Orthosports collects information from you for the primary purpose of providing quality health care. We require you to provide us with your personal details and a full medical history so that we may properly assist, diagnose and treat illnesses and be pro-active in your health care. We will also use the information you provide in the following ways:

- Administrative purposes in running our medical practice
- Billing purposes, including compliance with Medicare and Health Insurance Commission requirements
- Disclosure to others involved in your health care, including treating doctors and specialists outside this medical practice
- Disclosure to other doctors in the practice, in an emergency, when your usual doctor is on leave.
- Disclosure for research and quality assurance activities to improve individual and community health care and practice management. You will be informed when such activities are being conducted and given the opportunity to opt-out of any involvement

Orthosports does not disclose personal information to overseas recipients. Please let us know if you do not want your records accessed for this purpose, and we will note your record accordingly

You are not obliged to provide any information, but failure to do so might compromise the quality of the health care and treatment given to you.

Orthosports has a privacy policy which contains information about accessing and seeking correction of personal information, privacy complaints handling process, You have a right to access the information collected about you, except in circumstances where access might be legitimately withheld. You will be given an explanation in these circumstances.

Orthosports is entitled to charge fees to cover time and administrative costs which is not covered by a Medicare rebate.

If your information is to be used for any purpose other than set out above, further consent will be obtained.